"After the Ball."

It was a "decided hit." Experts called it a "sky-scraper." It was pitched pretty low; but when the Captain inflated his lungs and struck it it soared higher than Patti's best notes. It was just then that the left fielder ran about three miles "after the ball." Yes it was "Spaulding's League" and had been lifted by a wagon-tongue base ball bat bought of Cagwin & Noteware. By the way—this firm has added a new department, and is well supplied with fine chestnuts such as Harris' "After the Ball" and other songs.

E. B. Rail has just received a good stock of the Oliver Chilled Plows, also the John Deere Steel Plow, and extras for the same. He has added to his other goods to make the stock complete. Now is the time to get your paints and oils and anything in the house furnishing goods. Call and see the stock. At prices to suit the times.

Tonight's Party.

The young Turners have made great preparations for their dance at Odd Fellows' Hall tonight, and have tastefully decorated the place with evergreens, flags and gymnasium apparatus. The music will be furnished by a band for the occasion, and with tickets admitting gent and ladies for 50 cents there should be a big crowd. Ladies without escorts admitted free. The managers have made arrangements to have a first-class repast spread at the Ormsby for 25 cents per head, and there will be an intermission during the evening of sufficient length to give everyone ample time to eat.

The club is composed of young men who feel that they would rather spend their time and money in healthful athletic sports than in saloons, and as they are greatly in need of more apparatus, it is hoped their dance will be well patronized this evening.

CHALLENGE.—We the undersigned hereby challenge any baseball team in the State, under the age of 20 years, for a sum from $10 to $50.

NEWLANDS ON THE SITUATION.

The Attempt to Revive the Republican Party a Mistake.

Congressman Newlands passed Winnemucca last Sunday on his return to Washington, and in conversation with a Silver State reporter expressed himself as follows:

He had hoped to be able to stay over at Reno and address the people on the issues of the day, but he was unavoidably detained one day longer in San Francisco than he had figured on, and because of the urgent necessity of his presence in Washington he could not spare the time to do so; he was anxious for the fall campaign, so he could tell the people from the stump how the two old parties had been weighed in the balance and found wanting.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

He said the present political situation is this: The great majority of Democrats in both Houses of Congress favor the free coinage of silver, but the minority, acting with the Republicans, are able in conjunction with the President to defeat all favorable legislation; that the Populist is the only national party that has remained true to silver.

ONLY TWO PARTIES IN 1896.

The Democrats and Republicans of the Eastern States are one on the money question, and this will make the question a sectional one and the burning one of the next Presidential election. Whatever their names may be there will be but two great parties in 1896—the Gold Party, entrenched in the creditor States of New England and the Middle States, and the Silver party, embracing the sentiment of the debtor and producing States, the South and West.

By that time the people will have learned that the tariff has nothing to do with falling prices and consequent depression of all lines of business and industry they will realize that almost the sole cause of falling prices throughout the country is the appreciation of gold, and that the only way to check this appreciation is to restore to full monetary use its only competitor, silver; and that this could never be done by placing the power of legislation in the hands of our enemies, as the two old parties have proven themselves to be. He is confident there will be a revolt in the Southern States against Clevelandism at the next election and that it cannot possibly accrue to the advantage of the Republican party.

A GOLDBUG MISTAKE—NEVADA SHOULD BE A UNIT.

Concerning the attempt of a few distinguished gentlemen in the Western part of the State to revive the Republican party, he thought it was a great mistake; that the Silver party was good enough a party for any Nevada to belong to and support, and he had been in hopes that the few Republicans and Democrats in the State, after their overwhelming defeat in the last campaign, would see the error of their way and come over to the Silver party and make Nevada a unit in the fight for silver.

John Brady's Insurance.

Some three years ago John T. Brady a prominent miner and public man of Nevada, engaged himself to Miss Jennie L. Brophy, a very pretty young lady of this city. As a proof of his affection he insured his life in the order of Chosen Friends for $3000 and made the policy payable to her.

Two years ago, however, the engagement was broken, but Miss Brophy kept the policy. Some months ago Brady died and his brother, William Brady, presented a demand in the Supreme Council of Chosen Friends for $3000 insurance on his brother's life. Miss Brophy at the same time presented hers. The Council refused to pay either until their claims were settled one way or the other. The brother then sued the girl for $3000 and the case came up for hearing today in Judge Sanderson's Court.

The testimony on behalf of the brother was that frequent demands had been made on Miss Brophy by John T. Brady to return the certificate, but she had refused. John T. Brady then made out a new one in favor of the plaintiff.

Miss Brophy testified that John T. Brady was in a weak mental state when he made the new certificate and that she was entitled to the $3000.—S. F. Report.

The raiding of two Chinese stores at Vallejo and the taking away of fifteen boxes of stamped opium, is likely to give Martin Clarey of the customs service trouble, as the seizure was illegal, and it is claimed was attended by thefts, the result of the bungling way in which the seizure was made.

The proprietor of an eating house at Healdsburg, Sonoma county, advertises the business in the local newspaper as follows: "My labor is my capital and realizing this, I have determined to charge for my work in accordance with its value. George Walkington tells the Golden Eagle, Wash., Sentinel a story about his vote for Lincoln in 1860. "I was living then in Clinton, Henry county, Mo," he said "and each voter had to call out the name of the person he voted for. Only three persons in the precinct voted for Lincoln and I was one of them. I can take my Republicanism in pretty strong doses these times, and rather like it that way."
